

Anderson Public Library

Art Collection Policy

APL owns a permanent collection of fine art.

All art acquired for the library through private contributions or library funds shall belong to the library and cannot be removed from the permanent collection without the approval of the Library Board of Trustees.

The library will only accept donated works of art for the permanent collection approved by the professional counseling of an art consultant retained by the Library.

All art in the permanent collection must be the work of artists who meet acceptable professional standards.

All art in the permanent collection must be original work hand-signed by the artist.

All art in the permanent collection must have recognized artistic merit and must be suitable for public display.

All art in the permanent collection must be approved by the Library Board of Trustees or representatives designated by the Trustees.

All donations are offered as unconditional gifts.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees 1/15/03, revised 1/15/14. Reviewed 01/16/2019. Revised 4/20/22. Revised 4/20/23.
