

Anderson Public Library Social Media Policy

To increase awareness and use of library services, materials, and programs as well as foster a sense of community between the library and its users in line with our mission to Inform, Connect, Engage and Empower, Anderson Public Library (APL) official social media accounts on various platforms. Only designated library staff are authorized to post on behalf of the library.

Because APL is committed to connecting with community members, engagement from the public on library social media posts is welcome.

APL is not responsible or liable for comments or feedback posted by any subscriber to our social media tools.

APL reserves the right to remove inappropriate comments including, but not limited to, obscene or threatening language, spam or promotion of commercial services and products, and comments that are unrelated to the topic of the original post.
